

Assignment 5 World History & Literature

- Read:
 - Gilgamesh Handout pg. 65 Tablet XI i. — page 76 iv.
 - Genesis 6:1 — 9:17
- As you read these passages notice these key figures who are representative of one another.
 - Noah from the Bible & Utnapishtim in The Epic of Gilgamesh
 - Also ask yourself, “How does the world’s hero Gilgamesh compare to what you know about Jesus?”
 - God from the Bible & the false god named Enlil in The Epic of Gilgamesh
 - Your teacher believes that Enlil is a worldly representation of the God of the Bible
 - You may notice that the Epic of Gilgamesh paints the true God as an enemy.
- Write a Paper for October 12. (You will present this paper at the beginning of class)
 - This paper will notice similarities and differences between the Bible & the Epic of Gilgamesh’s account of the flood.
 - Format of the Paper:
 - Introduction paragraph:
 - Explain what you are about to tell the audience in your paper. (You may want to write this paragraph and the Conclusion paragraph last).
 - First Body paragraph:
 - Share at least three similarities between the story of Noah & the story of Utnapishtim.
 - Try to share with us in a sentence or two what you find interesting about this.
 - Second Body paragraph: Share two to three major differences that you find in this story. For example:
 - You can notice differences between Enlil and the God of the Bible.
 - You can notice differences between Utnapishtim and Noah.
 - You can notice differences between the details of the story.
 - You can even notice differences in the moral of the story.
 - Closing Paragraph:
 - Remind us of the most surprising similarity you noticed. (This is from your first Body paragraph).
 - Remind us of the most surprising difference you noticed. (This is from your second Body paragraph).
 - Then explain to us something you think your audience should learn from comparing these two stories.
 - Summarize the main thesis of your paper with a clincher sentence. This could also be called a thesis statement. You can use this closing sentence to give a title for your paper.
- Timeline for the week:
 - Tuesday: Read Genesis 6:1– 9:17
 - Wednesday: Read Gilgamesh Handout pg. 65 Tablet XI i. — page 76 iv.
 - As you read for Wednesday be sure to pay attention to the As you read section above.
 - You may want to write down or underline major similarities & differences you see.
 - Thursday
 - Write First and Second Body Paragraphs
 - These are explained above.
 - Friday
 - Write Introduction and Closing Paragraph
